Resumed meeting of the Executive Board

19-20 NOVEMBER 2019

Nairobi, Kenya

INTRODUCTION

The General Assembly of the United Nations, in its resolution 73/239 of 20 December 2018, decided that the Executive Board of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-Habitat) should meet for its first session in Nairobi in 2019 for a duration of three days, after the election of its members by the United Nations Habitat Assembly (UN-Habitat Assembly). The UN-Habitat Assembly, a universal membership consisting of 193 Member States of the United Nations held its first session from 27 -31 May 2019, and inter-alia, elected in May 2019 the 36 members of the Executive Board. The Executive Board held its first meeting for one day on 30 May 2019 on the margins of the first session of the UN-Habitat Assembly. At that meeting, the Executive Board decided to resume that first meeting at a later date in November 2019. Pursuant to that decision of the Executive Board on 30 May 2019 to resume its first meeting in November, the Bureau of the Executive Board met on 21 June and agreed that the resumed meeting of the Board should be held on 19 and 20 November. Accordingly, the up-coming resumed meeting of the Executive Board of UN-Habitat for 2019 will be held at the United Nations Office at Nairobi (UNON Complex), United Nations Avenue, Gigiri, Nairobi, Republic of Kenya, from Tuesday to Wednesday 19 to 20 November 2019.

IMPLEMENTING THE NEW
URBAN AGENDA

GENERAL INFORMATION ON KENYA

Officially known as the Republic of Kenya, the Country is on the east coast of Africa, and lies on the equator bordered by Tanzania to the South, Uganda to the West, South Sudan to the North-West, Ethiopia to the North and Somalia to the North-East.

The Capital, Nairobi, is a regional commercial hub with a population of about 4.5 million. Other major cities include Mombasa, which is the main seaport of the Indian Ocean, and Kisumu on Lake Victoria. The official language is English, and the national language is Kiswahili.

Kenya is three hours ahead of GMT.

Currency

The official currency of the Republic of Kenya is Kenya Shilling (KES). The current exchange rates of various currency which are subject to change are approximately:

1 US Dollar = KES 100

1 EUR = KES 112

For more information on exchange rates, visit the link below:
<https://www.centralbank.go.ke/rates/forex-exchange-rates/>.

Foreign currencies can be changed at the Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (JKIA) through banks and foreign currency exchange bureaux located at the airport or in town.

Banks in the Country are generally open Monday-Friday from 09.00 to 16.00 with some opening from 09.00 to 12.00 on Saturdays. ATMs are available at the airport, in shopping malls and stores at petrol stations. ATM and banking services are also available inside the United Nations Complex in Gigiri (see below).

Weather

Kenya enjoys a tropical climate. The month of November falls within the short rainy season, so rains can be expected with temperature between a maximum average of +25°C (77°F) and a minimum average of +14 °C (57 °F). It is warmer in the coastal areas.

Electricity

The electrical currents are 220 -240 Volts, 50 Hertz and 13A 3 square wall switch socket outlet are used.

Security

The United Nations Offices at Nairobi and Kenyan Authorities will ensure that all precautionary measures are taken for Executive Board participants' safety and security.

THE NEW
URBAN AGENDA

However, participants are responsible for their movements outside the United Nations Complex and it is recommended to:

- Avoid crowded areas.
- When walking, keep to the main roads and avoid shortcuts through back alleys and similar routes. However, where possible, take a taxi rather than walking.
- Never walk at night in the city center even for a short distance – always take a taxi.
- Ignore street children and people coming to you in the streets with hard-luck tales. They may be pickpockets or part of elaborate scams.
- Be wary of people loitering outside hotels. Stay informed: Read/listen to local news.
- Cooperate with security apparatus when they conduct security operations. Carry identification at all times.
- Tell someone where you are going and when to expect you back.
- Have emergency numbers registered on your phone.
- Ensure your mobile phone is fully charged (especially when you leave to go to public places) and that you have sufficient credit to make calls.
- Make use of safes in hotel rooms and DO NOT carry large sums of money. Avoid carrying credit cards, wearing expensive jewelry or watches when walking on the streets.
- Do not accept food and drinks from strangers.

UNON COMPLEX

Access to the complex and available services

The United Nations Office at Nairobi (UNON Complex or United Nations Complex) will be the venue for the resumed meeting of the Executive Board, located on United Nations Avenue in Gigiri, in the northern part of the City of Nairobi, about 25 kilometers from Jomo Kenyatta International Airport. The 140-acre United Nations Gigiri complex is a peaceful environment, next to the expansive Karura Forest.

Parking and Security at UNON

All Participants must disembark at the pavilion entrance and be screened before entering the UNON Complex.

Access to the UNON Complex for the period of the resumed meeting of the Executive Board will remain open to all official Embassy vehicles registered with United Nations Department of Safety and Security (UNDSS) and drivers with valid UNON issued IDs. With respect to non-official vehicles used by delegations, heads of delegations or ministers, details of the vehicles and driver must be sent in advance to Ms. Silvia Ragoss at silvia.ragoss@un.org and to the Secretariat of the Governing Bodies at unhabitat-sgb@un.org for a temporary Meeting Decal and driver pass to be issued. Embassies are encouraged to use official vehicles with United Nations parking decals.

Parking of these vehicles is restricted to the delegates' parking area. Due to the limited parking facilities within the UNON Complex, it is preferred that Embassy vehicles without diplomatic number plates limit their business within the compound to dropping off and collecting and should depart the compound immediately upon completion of such tasks.

Participants who are accompanied by armed close protection officers into the UNON Complex are requested to send the following information to UNON Security in advance: Full name of each close protection officer, full name and title of each participants being provided with protection, identification or credentials of each protection officer (passport, national ID card, etc.), copy of Government of Kenya firearms permit or temporary import/export firearms permit, the weapon make, model, serial number, caliber, and number of rounds of ammunition.

The information should be sent to the United Nations Security contacts listed below:

Inspector Ms. Janet Okal

janet.okal@un.org

Inspector Mr. Andrew Bakhoya

andrew.bakhoya@un.org

Telephone: +254 20 762 6666;
+254 (0)720 629 999; and
+254 (0)733 629 999

Banking Services at the UNON Complex

The banks inside the UNON complex are all on the lower concourse, and they all have ATMs and are open weekdays. Kenya Commercial Bank (KCB) Gigiri Branch and the United Nations Federal Credit Union (UNFCU) are open 08:30 to 16:00 while the Standard Chartered Bank which is opposite KCB Bank, opens from 9:00 to 16:00.

The ATMs are open 24 hours. Two are next to KCB for local and United States Dollars currencies, one near the UNFCU for United States Dollars currency, and one at Standard Chartered Bank for local currencies.

There are also two ATMs (KCB and UNFCU) at the UN Commissary on the northern end of the United Nations Gigiri Complex.

Banks and Exchange Bureaux close to the UNON Complex:

The Emerald Garden's Bureau de Change is 200 meters from the UNON Gigiri Complex. Turn right and cross the road from the main gate and find a Chinese pagoda building to your left, where the Forex Bureau de Change is located on the first floor. Other banking facilities are available at the same location.

Warwick Centre can be accessed as follows: from the main gate of the United Nations, cross the road, turn left and walk about 100m. The building will be to your right, in a complex of shops, banks, restaurants and offices.

Gigiri Square is next to Warwick Centre, but before the Mediterraneo Restaurant, and on the same side of the road housing Kenya Commercial Bank, Equity Bank, and 1&M Bank.

The Village Market which is a shopping complex and a 3-minutes taxi drive from the main gate of the United Nations has several banks and forex bureau.
