Draft decision 2022/[B]: Implementation of the normative and operational activities of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme, reporting on the programmatic activities of the Programme in 2022, implementation of subprogrammes, flagship programmes and technical cooperation activities

(a) Implementation of the normative and operational activities of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme

The Executive Board

[Takes note of] the update and report by the Executive Director on the contribution, experiences and added value of UN-Habitat in urban crisis situations

[Encourages] the Executive Director, within the limits of available resources, to continue the analysis of its operational and normative work in support of urban crisis prevention and response, to identify regional trends and solutions, and address possible gaps in tools and services provided by UN-Habitat globally;

[Requests] the Executive Director to help ensure that the science and the data on the wide range of crises occurring in urban areas is made accessible to local governments and local actors;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to further explore the contribution of urban crisis prevention and response, to climate action, durable solutions for the displaced, sustaining peace and acceleration of the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals, and to continue the extraordinary dialogue that was held on the matter at the eleventh session of the World Urban Forum [with a possible follow-up dialogue at the second session of the United Nations Habitat Assembly in 2023];

[Encourages] the Executive Director to mobilize further resources for UN-Habitat to take up its role of supporting United Nations country teams in managing acute urban displacement and finding durable solutions, in response to the Secretary-General's Action Agenda on Internal Displacement;

[Requests] the Executive Director to intensify programme development related to urban crisis prevention and response in close consultation also with strategic partners such as the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees;

[Also takes note of] the report of the Executive Director on the implementation of flagship programmes;

[Requests] the Executive Director to mobilize additional capacities and expertise as well as joint secretariat support for the flagship programmes as key instruments for the integration of the normative and operational work of UN-Habitat towards enhancing strategic partnerships across the flagship programmes and integrated work in priority locations, including at the subregional level;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to seek further convergence between UN-Habitat global programmes and flagship programmes to deliver more integrated and tailored solutions related to climate change, migration, smart cities, and urban regeneration and resilience;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to further highlight the importance of urban regeneration for the localisation of the Sustainable Development Goals, showcasing the linkages between the housing, climate change and the priorities of the Sustainable Development Goals;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to explore in a consultative manner the development of international guidelines on people-friendly smart cities to scale up good practice;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to develop strategic partnerships for resilient settlements for the urban poor by analysing existing expertise, experience, best practices and lessons learned, and to expand resource mobilization, including by disseminating success stories to relevant stakeholders;

[Encourages] the Executive Director to identify priority geographical areas where there is the greatest need and opportunity for UN-Habitat to add value to wider United Nations efforts in addressing urban migration and displacement challenges across the humanitarian-development-peace nexus;

[Requests] the Executive Director to develop a model of Sustainable Development Goal cities certification to be recognized across the United Nations system in line with the United Nations global urban monitoring framework;

(b) High-level meeting of the General Assembly on the implementation of the New Urban Agenda

[Welcomes] the update by the Executive Director on the outcomes of the high-level meeting of the General Assembly to assess progress in the implementation of the New Urban Agenda, held on 28 April 2022, [takes note of] the summary of the outcome of the high-level meeting on the review of the implementation of the New Urban Agenda, including the annex of actions on housing, climate action, localization, and urban crisis recovery to accelerate the implementation of the New Urban Agenda;

(c) Eleventh session of the World Urban Forum

[Takes note of] the update and the report by the Executive Director on the summary of the outcomes of the eleventh session of the World Urban Forum and encourages Member States to organize regular national urban forums to monitor the implementation of the New Urban Agenda at the national and local levels; urges the Executive Director to incorporate discussions at sessions of the World Urban Forum as input to the themes of the sessions of the United Nations Habitat Assembly;

(d) Preparations for the second session of the United Nations Habitat Assembly

[Welcomes] the update by the Executive Director on the preparations for the second session of the United Nations Habitat Assembly scheduled to be held from 5 to 9 June 2023 and [recommends that] Member States take into account the priorities of the Executive Director on affordable housing, climate adaptation, post-conflict urban regeneration and localization of the Sustainable Development

Goals when formulating resolutions; [further recommends] that Member States consider funding and financing that will ensure that resolutions can be implemented;

[Recalls] paragraph 14 of decision 2021/6, in which it recommended that the United Nations Habitat Assembly at its second session, in 2023, consider approving the extension of the current strategic plan for the period 2020–2023 until 2025 to cover the period 2020–2025;

[Takes note of] and [concur with] the theme proposed by the Executive Director for the second session of the United Nations Habitat Assembly;
